NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

With the announcement of the starting dates for football workouts this past week comes the realization that summer is just about over. This is especially true if you have older children in school for if they are not in football they are probably in the band and band school will also soon be starting.

Added to this is the fact that school will start earlier this year and you find that if you have not done all you intended to do this summer you had better hurry.

And needless to say we did not get everything done this summer we intended to and suspect we had better just give up and hope we do better next summer.

The only consolation for us is the fact that as summer ends the football season begins and this seems to balance things out. At least high school and college football will soon start—we are not so sure about pro football this year.

The way things stand right now it may be awhile before the pros get their troubles ironed out and start play. Like most people we tend to view the current strike problems of pro ball with mixed emotions. We realize that in some cases the players have not gotten a very good deal in that the bread and butter players —those who are lesser known but still very important to the game may come up short when their playing days are over.

But still we seem to take the naive view that even pro football is a sport and strikes and holdouts just do not seem to fit in too well with our conception of sports. This is kinda like teachers striking—the next thing you know the preachers will be on strike for more money and better benefits and probably if anyone ever had a just cause they probably do.

If and when this pro strike is finally settled and play starts we would not be too surprised if the players do not find that the hard to please fans will be even harder than ever to please.

Personally, with a boy playing seventh grade ball on Tuesday, another boy playing varsity ball on Friday and college ball on Saturday, we suspect that it won't make just a great deal of difference to us whether the pros play or not.

We ran across the following gems in "Trail Dust" a column in the Matador Tribune by Publisher Douglas Meador:

"Life can become complicated if we allow trivial incidents to fester into obsessions; however, I am unable to disregard my resentment when a cafe seems to require sweeping while I am eating."

"Merchandising is becoming so advanced, especially in the packaging that the customer may be enticed into buying an item for which he has no use, can not afford, and has no place to store."

"No other invention has affected mankind as has the automobile. It allows him to feel like a king and keeps him a pauper."

A new postal innovation seems to have a lot of smaller cities up in air. It seems that the post office has an experimental project underway in Lubbock and Fort Worth where big sorting and cancellation machines have been installed.

Instead of the local post offices working their own mail it is now being bundled up and sent into the sectional centers where it is sorted and cancelled and mailed from these.

This means that mail in towns like Graham, Slaton and many others is no longer bearing a local post mark and in cases where the mail is going in town it is sent to the sectional centers and then sent back. Which of course means that a letter going across the street may travel 200 miles getting there.

BROTHERS TO BE IN VIETNAM—Capt. Dan A. Newberry (who is holding his niece, Stacey) his wife Kay, center, and daughter Mollie are visiting here while he is on leave prior to assignment to Vietnam after Aug. 9. To the right is Mrs. Van A. Newberry whose husband, First Lt. Newberry is currently serving in Vietman. She holds Shayne. Mrs. Newberry, Stacey and Shayne met Lt. Newberry for a week last month in Hawaii.

Newberry Brothers To Serve Overlapping Tours In Vietnam

Capt. Dan A. Newberry will report to Fort Lewis, Wash., Sunday for further assignment to Vietnam where his twin brother, Army First Lt. Van A. Newberry, is currently serving with a mortar platoon.

Capt. Newberry could have applied for deferment since blood brothers are not compelled to serve in a war zone at the same time, but, he choose to go ahead and serve his year at this time.

Lt. Newberry, now stationed at Dau Tieng northwest of Saigon in the Black Virgin Mountains six miles from the Cambodian border, will return home in December.

He and his wife, the former Barbara Lakey, and two children, Stacey, 17 months, and Shayne, 11 weeks, met July 16-23 for R and R in Hawaii. Mrs. Newberry and the children were accompanied by her sister, Pauline Lakey, who helped care for the children.

It was not until Mrs. Newberry reached Hawaii that she learned that Lt. Newberry had been wounded on three occasions and had been hospitalized for a total of 29 days. He received three purple hearts for being wounded while engaged in combat operations. He was injured in January, again in February and again in April.

He received the Soldiers Medal for Valor for the rescue of a man who had fallen in a river and was being carried downstream while in operations in the Mekong Delta.

The Bronze Star with V device for Valor was given in recognition of Lt. Newberry's action while a platoon leader when he destroyed an enemy force which was laying in ambush to attack personnel in his unit.

He has also received a plaque presented from the 9th Infantry Division and four Vietnamese medals.

Lt. Newberry's wife and children are living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Lakey, while he is overseas.

Capt. Newberry, who received an advance in rank in June, served as company commander in the 45th Medical Battalion in Hanau, Germany. He and his wife, the former Kay Rainwater, and daughter, Mollie, four months, returned from Germany June 22 after 21 months there.

Mrs. Newberry and Mollie will live in Fort Worth while Capt. Newberry is in Southeast Asia.

Capt. Newberry reported for active duty in June, 1968, just after graduation from Hardin-Simmons University.

Lt. Newberry began active duty in November, 1968, and was assigned to Fort Raleigh, Kansas, and attended schools at Fort Benning, Ga., prior to his overseas assignment.

The men are sons of Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Newberry. Mr. Newberry is principal of Hamlin High School and Mrs. Newberry is Jones County Home Demonstration agent.

Kindergarten Qualifiers Should Contact School

Parents of children who will qualify for kindergarten in Hamlin Public Schools are being asked to contact the office of Supt. C. F. Cook at the high school building. The telephone number is 576-3322. Plans are underway now for the first kindergarten as a part of the public school system.

Guidelines set out by the Texas education Agency state that a child must meet these requirements: be at least five year, five months of age on Sept. 1. 1970. (birthday must be on or before Apr. 1, 1970); the child must come from a family with an income of $3000 or less per year or have some difficulty in understanding the English language.

Some 30 children are expected to be included in the program. They will have a school day the same as the first grade and the program is set up on a full school term. These children will ride the busses and the cafeteria will be available at the same cost as to a first grader.

Registration Dates Set Here

Dates for registration for high school and junior high school students have been announced by school officials.

Principal B. V. Newberry says seniors will register from 9 to 10:30 a.m. and juniors from 1 to 2:30 p.m. on Aug. 17. On Aug. 18 sophomores will report from 9 a. m. to 10:30 a.m. and freshmen from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

Texas Voters to Vote On Seven More Patches On Constitution

Texas voters will again have the opportunity to apply more patches to the often-patched Texas constitution come General Election time in November.

Seven proposed amendments to the constitution will appear on the general ballots for consideration by the voters.

Probably the most controversial of the seven amendments will be No. 2. which would enable the legislature to pass a local option mixed beverage law.

The seven proposed amendments include —

No. 1 — Amending Article V, Section 1-a, of the Texas Constitution, relating to removal, retirement or censure of justices, judges, and justices of the peace under prescribed circumstances.

No. 2 — Amending Article XVI, Section 20, Subsection (a), to authorize the legislature to enact a mixed beverage law regulating the sale of mixed alcoholic beverages on a local option basis.

No. 3 — Authorizing the legislature to provide by law for the establishment of a uniform method of assessment of ranch, farm, and forest lands based upon the capability of the lands to support the raising of livestock or to produce farm and forest crops.

No. 4 — Amending Article III, Section 51-b, Subsection (a), to reconstitute the State Building Commission as a three-member appointed commission.

No. 5 — Authroizing any county to issue road bonds in an amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property in the county under certain conditions.

No. 6 — Amending Article XVI, Section 51, to increase the value of the homestead exempt from forced sale from $5,000 to $10,000.

No. 7 — Authorizing the legislature to provide for consolidating offices and functions of government and for performance of governmental functions by contract between political subdivisions in any county.

NEWS FROM . . .

Sylvester

By MRS. B. M. BABB

It is rather depressing to return to West Texas, having been in South Texas where it rains nearly every day and every thing is so green and pretty. We returned on Sunday morning after being in Houston and West Columbia where Rev. Babb read the ceremony for the wedding of Don Foster and Helen Ashley Saturday night, in the First Baptist Church of West Columbia.

While in West Columbia we visited with my brother, W. C. Edwards and many friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner have enjoyed a visit with their daughter's family, the Bartleys of Odessa, over the weekend.

J. P. and Polly Maberry drove to Abilene on Sunday and took the Wesley Maberry family to the Lake for an afternoon of fishing and skiing. Polly says she didn't catch anything except a sun burn.

Mrs. Floy McCrieght has been taken to Hendrick hospital in Abilene but at this writing I am not sure as to why she is there. All tests weren't completed when I heard.

Our sympathy to Mrs. Clark in the death of "Dad". They lived in our community for so many years.

If you have had or will have a birthday this month of August please have a Happy One!

Rev. Gene Hawkins of Seminole is bringing the message for the Revival at the Sylvester Baptist Church. Prayer services are at 7:30 p.m. and evening services at 8.

Mr and Mrs. Woodrow Lawlis spent several days with the Harold Johnson family visiting points of interest in New Mexico last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Maberry of New Mexico visited in the Dozier home this past week.

The Max Deel family of Levelland spent Friday night in the W. B. Brown home. They had been on a nice vacation and were on their way home.

Graveside Rites Held Monday for Mrs. Roxie Harvey

Mrs. Roxie P. Harvey. 74, died Friday at 9:30 p.m. at her home in northeast Hamlin.

Graveside rites were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday at Hamlin East Cemetery under the direction of Foster Funeral Home. Rev. B. C. Freeman, pastor of Oak Grove Baptist Church, officiated.

Born Apr. 16, 1896 at Bryan, she had lived here since 1925. She married Nick Harvey at Bryan in 1914. He preceded her in death.

She was a member of Oak Grove Baptist Church.

Survivors include one son, Charles L. Shelton of Hamlin; one sister. Mrs. Mamie O. Johnson of Los Angeles, Calif.; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

We have the new POWER POINT Paper Mate pens and refills at the HAMLIN HERALD.

STATE Capital NEWS

by VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN, — Campaigns are shaping up on some of the seven proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on by Texans at the General Election on November 3.

While public interest centers on the liquor-by-the drink amendment, there are other major alterations in the state's laws to be considered by the voters.

In their order on the ballot, these are:

1. Enlarge the powers of the Judicial Qualifications Commission to censure or remove lower court judges and justices of the peace as well as district and appellate judges.

2. Authorize the legislature to enact a law on the sale of mixed drinks.

3. Provide for legislative establishment of a uniform method of tax assessment on ranch, farm and forest lands based on the capability of the lands to support the raising of livestock or production of farm and forest crops.

4. Make the State Building Commission a three-member appointive agency.

5. Permit counties to issue road bonds up to one-fourth of their assessed real property valuation on a majority vote.

6. Make town or city homesteads of $10,000 and less exempt from forced sale (presently set at $5,000).

7. Allow the legislature to provide for consolidating offices and functions of government and for performance of governmental functions by contract between the political subdivisions in any county.

Texas voters have adopted 195 amendments to the 1876 constitution, over the years, and rejected 125.

DESEGREGATION SUITS THREATEN — Federal negotiators report that only a few of the 38 Texas school districts, called on the carpet concerning segregation, had satisfactory plans for complying with U. S. guidelines. They conducted a two-day conference with school officials here and gave most of them another week to try and work out something or face a lawsuit by the U. S. Justice Department.

Negotiators suggested "pairing" of adjoining neighborhood school districts to get better racial balance.

Lufkin, Marshall, Midland and Katy found no ground for agreement with the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and Justice Department negotiators. Some complained that federal officials raised a new issue . . . that of integrating Mexican-Americans, as well as blacks. Most want to continue their efforts to find a way to comply with suggested plans.

Palestine reached a tentative agreement on pairing plans involving two grades in each school and requiring limited busing.

Surveys show that a bare ten percent of fishermen buy a license to fish for muskellunge only. —SPORTS AFIELD

JOE HUDSPETH'S

FROM THE FILES . . .

FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
(August 7, 1925)

Last week the Herald mentioned that a large skating rink was being started by B. S. Ferguson. This structure was being rushed to completion when about the end of the week the city authorities held up further work because the character of structure did not comply with the city fire ordinances. Since then there has been considerable parleying over this matter and a city court proceeding. We are informed that a fire and costs has been accepted by Mr. Ferguson and that the main features of the skating rink structure will be made to comply with the letter of the city fire ordinance. Infact Mr. Ferguson has changed the whole wall plans and has already excavated and poured the concrete for the foundation for a brick and concrete building which will extend to the main street to become a substantial business house, while the rink floor will be covered with a standard floor when finally finished.

The supports for the roof will be iron set in concrete and the entire roof will be tied onto the front wall.

Before the stopping of the work by the city, a canvas cover had been made to protect the floor, which is of maple. Probably there will be a compromise to allow the canvas to stay over the floor to protect it temporarily till the better roof is built.

These are the facts as far as can be ascertained.

Everybody around Hamlin has heard of the "Wild-Cat" Lake or tank. This is on the Hood Ranch, nine miles northeast of Hamlin.

This famous lake of pretty deep water has been "taken in" by the owners, W. T. and M. W. Hood and will hereafter be under their supervision. They have built some bathing facilities out there, such as dressing rooms springboards and a high diving scaffold. Messrs. Hood have decided for the rest of the season, that Saturday and Sunday nights and Wednesdays will be enough time for receiving visitors, and on all days other than these, the pasture will be closed. A small fee of 25¢ will be charged for the privilege of enjoying this water. They will likely make bigger and more improvements another year.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(August 4, 1950)

Sale of the Johnson Drive Inn cafe was consumated this week. Completion of the transaction brought ownership of the popular eating establishment to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hawkins, long time Sylvester resident.

The cafe will be temporarily identified as the Drive Inn Cafe until a suitable name can be chosen. Other changes in the operating procedure will be announced as they are worked out.

In an interview with The Herald, Mr. Hawkins advised that the customary Monday closing of the cafe would be suspended and a seven day schedule will be followed in the future. Specialities will remain as formerly featured and they assure careful attention to the food requirements of the public.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson are continuing to operate the Drive Inn until possession is surrendered Monday. They have announced no plans for the future other than an immediate vacation.

A transaction whereby the Lail's Cafe was sold to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Riley was completed late last week and the cafe is now being operated as Riley's Cafe.

Mrs. Riley informed representatives of The Herald that the cafe would be operated on the same plan as heretofore and that they will strive to serve the public well.

TEN YEARS AGO
(August 4, 1960)

Fourteen of the blocks needed to get the paving program underway have been signed with Hamlin Jaycees who are just getting started in their survey of the town.

The Jaycees are concentrating on the northwest residential area and when this is completed they will take another part of the city. Max Murrell, chairman of the project for the Jaycees, said this week that due to the urgency of the program home owners who would like to have their street paved should contact him or the City Hall and obtain the papers necessary to sign up the block and not to wait for the Jaycees to get to them.

Under the terms approved by the City Council the paving will cost $2.00 per front line and the curb and gutter $1.35 per front foot. The city has a financing plan available for those needing one. The terms of the plan call for four per cent interest and to be payable in 48 monthly installments. Because of the limited amount of money available for loans it is requested that this be used as a last resort.

Murrell stated that 58 Jaycees will work on the project and that they hope to sign up as many blocks as possible within the next week in order that bids can be let and the paving started so that the work can be finished before the weather gets too cold.

Around $100 was stolen from Hawkins Implement Company sometime Monday night. Entry was gained through a window in the rear of the building.

The money was taken from vending machines and a drawer but the burglars missed $35 in another opened drawer. Also taken were two transistor radios.

Chief of Police, J. L. McCurdy said Tuesday that several sets of fingerprints were found.

Although no damage was done in the building, records and papers had been scattered.

Neinda Philosopher Finds A Ready Phrase To Explain All the Country's Financial Bind

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One explains a complicated financial matter this week, approximately.

Dear editar:

To get my mind off some first-of-the-month bills the other day I was resting and reading a newspaper under my favorite shade tree, the one that's lined up with two other shade trees so that when the sun moves the next tree picks up the shade, then the next, and I can stay in one place all afternoon without shifting positions — I konw some people who are so poorly equipped to think ahead and so unaware of the laws of nature they go to sleep in the shade and wake up in the sun — and ran across an article that sort of pepped me up.

According to it, the head of a big financial conglomerate was explaining to his stockholders why the corporation was losing money and getting further and further into debt. "We are experiencing a negative cash flow," he said.

What this means, the writer of the article explained, was that the company was paying out more than it was taking in. In other words, he added, it couldn't make ends meet.

I prefer the company's explanation.

The trouble with this Johnson grass farm, for example, sounds a lot better when I say it's experiencing a negative cash flow rather than saying it's loosing money.

Washington, for another example, would sound more comforting if it'd report a negative cash flow instead of a 3-billion-dollar budget deficit.

The trouble with a lot of people's financial situation these days is not inflation, rising costs of everything, higher taxes or over-spending, it's just that when they get to the end of the month they find their household is experiencing a negative cash flow.

What everybody needs is a positive cash flow.

I'm glad to get this cleared up.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Granddaughter In 4-H Contest

Gwyneth Rowland, 9, a member of Ector County 4-H and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rowland, is to participate in the three-day 4-H contest which was to open today (Thursday) in Amarillo.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Rowland horse Ladd placed first in of Gardendale, she and her halter and sixth place in western pleasure to qualify for the state contest.

Mitch Wilson, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Wilson, returned last week after a seven week stay at San Marcos Baptist Academy. He won first place honors in the 100 meter and 50 meter swimming competition.

HAD A PARTY? That's news, call the HERALD.

The Knowledge of the Lord

Habakkuk 2:14. "For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

The Church is chosen of God to spread the good news that God has a plan to redeem men and reconcile them unto Himself through the vicarious sacrifice of Jesus Christ our Lord. The Church will be so successful in spreading this glorious knowledge in the world that God says the earth will be as full of it as the waters that fill the ocean. Attend church and become a part of this great undertaking.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

TV SHOPPERS DON'T BE DISAPPOINTED

You shouldn't buy your new television off an out-of-town showroom floor, or accept delivery from some distant warehouse. The only way you can be sure it's right for your Decor and will give you the picture quality you demand is to buy it in your own living room or den. Call or come in and pick the set or sets you feel might be right for you and we will place them in your home until the right one rings a bell.

What about price? Shop all you want in the Big City, get all the prices, resist the high powered salesmen, then come on back to Hamlin and you will find what you want at a price you can afford. We believe we can meet or beat their price on all but the come-on items. From time to time we will have special buys available. All will be plainly marked and in the window, watch for them--some are there right now. Terms if desired at bank rates.

Service is my business and will always be available. Days - Nites - Weekends and Holidays. I'm as close as your phone. I have been in electronics for over 16 years and have the equipment to maintain all your television needs right here in Hamlin. I was raised in Hamlin and should you choose to have me handle all your television needs I will be more than fair with you at all times on all matters. I wouldn't have it any other way.

Tips On Care of Trees and Shrubs During Dry Weather Offered

Signs of moisture stress on trees and shrubs are most evident in a wilted condition of the leaves, Mrs. Mary Y. Newberry, Jones County Home Demonstration Agent has noted.

"If a slight wilt on leaves during the afternoon recovers before sundown, the stress is not severe," Mrs. Newberry said. "However, should the leaves remain limp in the early evening, the tree should be given a deep soaking of water."

If the tree is planted in sandy soil, it should receive deep soakings every five to six days, however, if the tree base is in heavy, clay-like soil, watering should be spaced to every seven to 10 days, she said. Heavy soils will take water more slowly but hold it longer, whereas sandy soils soak up water rapidly but also lose it faster because they are more porous, she explained.

"The type of soil in which the tree or shrub is planted is a deciding factor in determining just how much water is adequate," Mrs. Newberry said.

A plant growing in sandy soil will also need a larger volume of water because much of it will be lost through evaporation, Mrs. Newberry said, adding that watering in the morning will accomplish two desirable effects.

"First, water is allowed time to soak into the ground before the midday sun evaporates much of it," Mrs. Newberry said. "Second, there will be less chance of mildew, fungi, and root rot."

"The plant will store up the water so you can water less frequently or decrease the soaking time a little and this will help to reduce the water bill."

A mulch of lawn clippings, manure or other organic materials will keep the soil moist longer, Mrs. Newberry said. A mulch of barnyard manure should be used only if the tree or shrub is not planted in the lawn, she added.

In watering a tree, Mrs. Newberry advises that the watering area be larger than the circumference of the branches. Only then will the feeding roots of the tree be in moist soil.

"The fallacious notion that the main woody roots that sometimes protude at the tree base are the organs through which water is absorbed, influences home gardeners to water just under the trunk of the tree," Mrs. Newberry explained. "It is the small feeder roots which spread about the same area at the above-ground portion of the tree that enable the plant to drink."

A basis of three to four feet in diameter around the base of a small tree may be sufficient, but larger trees may need a water sprinkler to cover the adequate area, the Home Demonstration Agent said.
